The Power of Angels

When you contact the angels listed in this book, you will have the power to dominate success and fortune, obtain what you wish, protect yourself and stop enemies. These angels can be contacted easily, instructed directly and will gladly fulfil your desires.

Summoning angels is said to be difficult, but there is a system that makes contact easy. This system has been developed over thirty years by a group of people working together on the power of magick.

You don't need to believe anything or belong to any religion. The angels are ready to listen and ready to work for you. You don't need to be pure or worthy. All you need is a real desire, a strong desire for something to change in your world. If you have that desire, the angels will take you where you want to go. It is their job to give us the power to express the life we dream of living. All you have to do is ask in the right way.

The angels in this book can help you to carry out difficult tasks, strengthen your will and increase your popularity. They can work to attract friendship, love, calm arguments, keep lovers loyal and recover lost love. They will protect, uncover truth, stop lies and cheats, help you find work and increase your success in areas of fame and fortune. There are angels that can inspire artists and attract wealth, spreading the word about your works. Debtors can be made to pay up. You can turn enemies into friends, protect yourself from dangerous attacks or lie low and remain unseen. Whether you are making deals, learning a trade, trying to pass exams or working to increase wealth, the angels can help. You can be popular with superiors, add power to all your work and to all your magick and keep your willpower strong.

I work with a group of occultists. At present there are seventeen of us in The Gallery of Magick. Most of us have been working together for over thirty years. This book reveals some of the most important secrets discovered by The Gallery. These secrets give you the fastest possible access to angelic power.

Decoding The Magick

Just about all the magickal knowledge you need can be found on the internet, at no cost, and you can experiment for years trying to find out how to decode ancient grimoires. That's what we did and it worked for us, even though we had to buy real books and collect information gradually, as the internet wasn't available to us back in the seventies.

It took decades for us to realize some of our mistakes, and a lot of experimentation to find out what was really important in magick. There are countless theories and ideas going on out there, and finding something that works takes time. Our own work evolves continually, but there are several key secrets that make magick work. There is no better way to prove their power than to use them for angelic contact.

A great deal of the magickal knowledge on the internet is priceless, but there is a lot of disinformation and a lot of ideas, diagrams and images that simply don't work. You could spend a couple of hours Googling everything you need to know about angels, and you could even download a few free books – but they would be riddled with incorrect angelic names, false explanations of what the angels can do, extremely long and difficult rituals, and worst of all, no pronunciation guide. In many cases you wouldn't have the correct angelic seal, and you'd be using the wrong invocation to call them. There are people trying to contact angels using the very worst information, who then wonder why the magick isn't working.

The good news is that when you get these details right, angelic contact is instant. We have removed the misinformation, and given you the purest access to twenty-four angels of power. These are angels that can bring you wealth, fame, protection and other powers such as the ability to uncover secrets, repel evil, discover more about your creativity or ease the pain of mental suffering. The magick may be simple, but its force is devastating.

The methods used in this book are easy to follow. It doesn't matter whether you believe in them, only that you act as though you believe in them. You can think of yourself as an actor putting on a play. So long as you go in to this system with that level of commitment you will see results.

Using this simple system you can get an angel's attention, talk to the angel directly and let it make changes in your life.

The Secrets of Angelic Contact

To contact an angel all you need is its sigil (or seal) and its name. The sigil is a small diagram or drawing, and the name is something that should be repeated three times. Correct pronunciation is not essential, but we've supplied the best pronunciation for western speakers.

Many occultists would agree that, in theory, the above is true. Angelic contact takes nothing more than desire, a name and a sigil. In practice, it helps if you add in some more directed ritual magick to ensure that contact is made.

There are many magickal approaches to obtaining angelic contact, and some require endless bathing and confession, meditation and purification. But that approach has always seemed over the top to me, because when you hear stories about angelic contact, angels help the poor, the lost and the dispossessed. Most stories of spontaneous angelic contact are about ordinary people, or the destitute and poor, or soldiers who are about to die in battle but are then rescued in a flash of light. Whatever angels may be, they do not dislike humans, and it is their sacred duty to help us when we ask.

I don't think we need to dress up and get clean to meet them. Angels don't see us as dirty annoyances. We are already worthy of their attention and they are ready to listen.

Other approaches to contact use prayer and faith and urge you to train yourself over months, straining and forcing yourself to believe the angel is there. This approach implies that you're going to have to try very hard to get the angels to hear you.

My experience has been that angels are always listening, and it doesn't take much effort to contact them. If you use a seal or sigil, an angelic name and some basic concentration, that may be all that's needed. But as mentioned, I work with a group of occultists known as The Gallery of Magick, and we share ideas and try out experiments. The results have led us to develop the fastest and most direct way of making contact and getting a response.

Angels help the most miserable people and the lost, they help the greedy and the mean, they help the cruel and the cold. If somebody asks for help from an angel, help arrives.

Do not feel a need to bathe before speaking to them. Do not feel unworthy. Do not worry about whether your desire is 'right' or whether an angel will approve. You make the choice about what you want and you get to live with the result. The angels are there to enable you to perform your true will on earth. If you know what it is that you truly desire, it will come to pass.

Only you know what it is that you want from life, and your desires change and grow as you change and grow. Pay attention to your real desires, and do the things that make you happy and fulfilled.

I occasionally fly light airplanes, and I recently met a pilot who had saved his money for years and spent months getting his licence, but I could tell that – despite his assertion that he was going to buy a plane one day – he didn't really like flying. Somewhere in his life he'd convinced himself that being a pilot would make him happy even though he had no real love of the experience. It was only when he could admit this to himself that he could let go of his false dream and find out what he really wanted. Then he was able to make a real improvement to his life.

Look for the experiences that make you happy, look for the situations in life that make you able to express yourself and feel love for your journey through life.

To live a happy and fulfilled life, you need to find a balance between your animal desires and love, between material goods and pleasant experiences. This does not mean you need to seek a noble life. If you are at the point in your life where all you really want is a huge house to retire in, or enough money to travel, or to find new love – if that's what you really want, then that is fine. The angels don't judge.

The warning is given because the angels will provide what you ask for. Be careful what you ask for, because angelic power tends to be life-changing. Other forms of magick concentrate on small details such as attracting some extra money, but angelic magick is likely to change an entire situation. The angels paint in broad strokes, so be certain you want the change you ask for.

And although angels can guide you, when you ask for their wisdom, they are not there to rule your life or tell you what to do with your time. You are responsible for your life, and it is up to you to find your desires and then fulfil them. Never ask the angel to tell you what's best for you, because it is your job to find out what's best, and then use magick to bring about those circumstances.

The purpose of the magick is to change yourself and the world to get the results you want, so never put your life in the hands of another entity. Angels are messengers, and can give access to great wisdom, but they are not in charge of your life. Once you've received their wisdom, you get to decide what happens, and the angels will use their powers, and hosts of powers that work for them, to bring you the desired results.

In the following chapters I will reveal the secrets that make angelic contact possible and instantaneous. If you're familiar with magick, some of these ideas may be challenging, or they may seem familiar. If you are new to magick, the ideas may seem strange, but realize that this system was built by taking many successful magickal ideas – both ancient and modern - and refining them into something that works. The secrets may seem strange at times, but they are a reality, and they bring this magick to life.

How to Contact an Angel

The next few chapters cover concepts and techniques that you will use to contact the angels, showing you exactly what to say and do, and how to raise up the powers of magick. Some of the techniques require you to read slowly and understand the concepts clearly, but you probably want to know how to contact an angel.

This chapter gives you a basic outline of how the overall process works.

Firstly, you will create and empower a pair of rare talismans. These talismans will be used in every ritual, to give you access to the twenty-four angels.

You will then decide what result you want, and determine which angel or angels would be most suitable for the task.

You then plan and write out your request in detail and prepare to perform the ritual.

During the ritual you will use the angel's sigil. Each angel has a unique sigil that has been drawn inside a circle of power. This image ensures that contact is made, that you remain safe and that results will occur in the real world.

You use the talisman and the angelic sigil, combined with a series of words and names to attract the attention of the angel.

Once contact is made you speak your request and wait for any response from the angel. There may be none, or there may be a powerful response. Either way, the angel has heard.

You repeat the working for eleven days.

The result will manifest.

Magick is only ever one factor in a situation, so the result may be instant or it may take three days, three weeks or three months for you to see results. This depends entirely upon what you're asking for and your current situation. If you ask for protection, it's instantaneous. If you ask to be more popular, it may take days. If you ask for wealth and fame, you can expect rapid changes that develop and last over several years.

Sometimes you only need one angel. At other times it's better to work with two or more angels on one problem.

Ideally you should deal with one task at a time, to ensure you maintain full concentration and commitment during the ritual. However, if you need to protect yourself, silence an enemy, find some money and make yourself popular all at the same time, it can be done, if you have the focus and time to work four rituals every day for eleven days. If there's no urgency, it's best to work on one problem at a time.

It can take some time to learn the techniques and ideas in this book, as well as practicing the pronunciations and getting familiar with the ritual approach. For some people, getting to grips with all these ideas and preparing the talismans and sigils takes a couple of weeks. Others get to grips with it in a day and perform their first ritual after reading the instructions. Go with whatever approach feels right to you, but don't worry or overthink your magick.

The beauty of angelic magick is that once you put in the effort, contact is instant. The contact will be made. It is better to perform imperfect magick often than to worry about every detail and avoid magick until you've set everything up perfectly. When you can, get on with the magick and get the changes you want to see in your life.

The book will also show you how to experience the presence of the angel. For some, this happens instantly and dramatically. For others, it can be a subtle sense of a presence. There are others who don't sense the angels at all, but still see the results. If you want to build a relationship with an angel so that you can experience the contact directly, I'll show you the extra steps you can take.

Before describing the ritual itself, there are several powers and concepts that you need to become familiar with, and these will be described in the following chapters.

The Force of Connection

This book offers secrets of angelic contact that I have never seen used in combination elsewhere.

The first of these concerns the energy of lightning, or electricity. Magick is often concerned with the four ‘elements’ of earth, air, fire and water. They are used symbolically in many rituals. The fifth element is often referred to as spirit or something similar.

We have found, however, that when you bring the power of electricity - the blue light that thunders from the sky - into your rituals, it forges an instant connection between you and the spirits. After all, lightning makes a visible connection between the heavens and the earth.

Occult literature is filled with spells and rituals that refer to lightning, and the word ‘thunder’ appears in sacred texts more often than you would believe. Electricity, far from being a modern invention, is something the ancients used for angelic contact. It is the secret key that opens many magickal pathways.

Don’t worry, you don’t need to plug into any electrical power – this is done purely with words and imagination, but the power is as real as an electric shock.

Our brains are riddled with electrical charge, and when our thoughts are directed to imagine lightning, we connect with a host of angels. If you want to get an angel’s attention, this is the way.

I should be clear that this process uses the imagination, and you should not be tempted to perform rituals on a hilltop during a storm. This probably sounds obvious, but you’d be amazed at some of the things I’ve seen people do in the name of magick. If there is a thunderstorm in your vicinity, then by all means perform this magick in a safe place, where you can see the lightning and hear the thunder. That makes the magick a lot more fun, but it is in no way essential, so don’t seek it out. The real power of lightning comes from within.

We came across this concept when studying a particular form of Kabbalistic magick that mentioned lightning. We put it into practice and it worked. Since then we have noticed how often electricity is referred to in sacred texts and occult works. In The Chicken Qabalah, Lon Milo Duquette suggested that the Ark of The Covenant was a giant battery, which is why people who touched it were struck by lightning. This is (I believe) intentionally quite amusing, but it ties in with our studies, and the hundreds of references to lightning in sacred texts.

When you look at the science behind lightning, it hints at the beautiful occult truth of electricity. Electrical flow is caused when electrical charge is out of balance. If there is a negative charge, a flow of electrons comes in to restore balance. This is what magick does – it creates a flow of change that brings balance to your life. This is a massive over-simplification, but it’s worth reading about electricity because it is symbolic echo of the way we can slip out of balance, and then attract a flow of change to restore balance.

It’s also worth noting that when we see lightning strike the ground, the bright fork of lightning we see most clearly is actually the ‘return stroke’ as the energy travels back to the cloud. It isn’t a bolt from above that we see, but the light returning to the heavens. This means there is an almost continual energy exchange going on. With a lightning strike happening somewhere in the world almost every second, we are always in contact with the heavens.

In this book, you will use the power of imagined lightning to contact angels and get them to work for you. Remember that electricity is a force that makes our brains and bodies function, and it is the same force that thunders and flashes from the heavens.

To use the power of lightning all you need to do is imagine a bolt of lightning striking you when you say an angel’s name. Ideally, you should imagine a blue light thundering down from above, striking you and returning to the heavens.

When you come to the part of the book that describes the ritual in detail you will see the * symbol, and that shows when you need to imagine this lightning bolt. Most of the best magickal secrets are astonishingly simple, and they can sound so simple that you may dismiss them. You may be worried that your imagination is not clear enough. Do not worry about these things. Simply imagine a bolt of lightning striking you and connecting you to the angel you are naming.

If, for example, you are asked to call out to Raziel, you will say RAH-ZEE-ELL*, and as you call the name you picture lightning coming down from the clouds, striking you and returning to heaven. Imagine that it forges a connection between yourself and the angel.

We all imagine in different ways. Some people can picture things cinematically. Others hear sounds, and some people can only imagine conceptually. Whatever form of imagination you use, you can imagine something that you will be effective.

Some people report feeling a tingle of electricity, others feel the full force of the energy and some people feel nothing. I know some people who see flashes of light and others who hear thunder. For some the experience is extremely real, and for others it is a mundane part of the process. It doesn't matter what your experience of this technique feels like, so long as you actually perform the technique.

Do not overthink it or worry about whether you are getting it right. Imagine the lightning when you call the name, and that will help to forge a connection between you and the named angel without fail.

The next secret is to make use of an easily-contacted angel, who makes the rest of the work simple. The angel in Charge of this operation is Raziel. To many, Raziel is seen as an angel so mighty that making contact would require the most dedicated rituals and endless months of occult work. We have found a shortcut. This shortcut was explored briefly in Magickal Wealth, but not explained fully. In this book you get access to all the tools required to contact Raziel, who then gives you access to the other angels in this book. Raziel is the gatekeeper of this magick.

A system that the older members of my group have all worked with is the dramatically-named Miracle of New Avatar Power by Geof Gray-Cobb. Despite describing an extremely simple technique and containing some mistakes, along with outrageous stories that were possibly invented to convince the reader about the validity of the magick, this book worked. For some of us, it was the first time we saw real results that made us believe in magick.

A lot of the magick wasn't quite right, but some was. Lots of people use this system today. It's known as NAP, and you can get good results if you work this magick on smaller projects. The best thing about NAP is that Cobb discovered shortcuts that have expanded all our magick, and inspired us to discover shortcuts of our own.

At the beginning of his main ritual, Cobb suggests you call on an angel called Arzel. Many people assert that this name should be pronounced ARE-ZALE, rather than ARE-ZELL. As such, people have been using both pronunciations for some time. Both seem to work.

This led us to investigate further, and we discovered many people using a shortcut. By reciting part of Psalm 80 of the Tehillim, you can call Arzel. All you need to do is face East and say:

Kosu harim silah va'anafeha arzeh El

The actual translation of this verse is, 'The mountains were covered with its shadow, and its branches became mighty cedars.' Although the transliteration of the Hebrew includes the phrase 'arzeh El', there is no direct mention of an angel called Arzel. Despite this, the call seems to work with dramatic efficiency.

Why this phrase from the Tehillim summons an angel of peace and communication so quickly is a mystery that held our interest. Arzel is an angel that brings light from the east, and often people summon the angel and notice the scent of cedars. We found this intriguing.

Unable to find any truly reliable reference to an actual angel called Arzel, we wondered what we were calling. Could it be that we'd found a shortcut to the mighty Raziel?

When you look at the original Hebrew in the Tehillim, Arzel is identical to the Spelling of Raziel, apart from one silent letter. In other words, when said out loud, they are the same name.

The Gallery of Magick believe that the angel Arzel is actually Raziel. One way or another, Cobb has given us the gateway to an angel of exceptional power.

It is possible that Cobb built some magick into the word 'Arzel' so that it worked as a secret shortcut to contact Raziel. Many people report that Arzel is the easiest angel to call. You simply call for help (without any sigil or any ritual other than relaxation), and you feel a presence.

The same is not true of the traditional Raziel, who can be difficult to contact. As such, we believe that although Cobb made some mistakes in his work, his naming of Arzel was genuinely High Magick, offering a way to access a mighty angel who gives access to a group of powerful angelic beings.

Interestingly, Cobb used pronunciation guides similar to the ones in this book, throughout his NAP book, but gave no phonetic pronunciation for Arzel. Was this a clumsy oversight, a mistake, or a way of hiding his great and secret work with Raziel? We will never know.

To many the El sound in Arzel should be pronounced EL, but others argue that it should be pronounced ALE. Without getting into a deep and never-ending discussion about Hebrew pronunciation, what I do know is that both pronunciations work.

We have also contacted Raziel directly, using full evocation, to check that our approach was correct. The answers we received were unusual and cloaked in secrecy, as though somebody else's secret was being protected. Despite this lack of clarity, what Raziel did make clear to us is that our method works. That is all we needed to know.

In terms of practical use, the best way to get the system to work is to combine several of the methods that have been found to work so far. Even the pronunciation ARE-ZALE, which we would argue is technically incorrect, does work, probably because so many occultists have been using it during the past few decades. It's been used so often that it has taken on power. The pronunciation ARE-ZELL may work for the same reason, or because Cobb imbued it with power, making it a direct line to Raziel.

People will argue about magickal pronunciation for years – literally years, even decades – but there is no finer method for finding out what works best than experimentation. We have taken all this knowledge and the most detailed experiments have shown that a combination of pronunciation is the best approach.

When you call as instructed, know that you are calling, Raziel, who will come to you easily, and brings a sense of light and peace that makes contact with other angels simple. Raziel is said to hold the secrets of the universe, and this gives you the power to contact angels and get them to perform alchemy in your life.

The Opening Words

In the NAP book there is also an interesting opening to the ritual where Cobb has you make a statement to the ‘inner planes’, in which you state that your purpose is ‘ANKAR YOD HAY VAW HAY’. Again, there are countless debates on the meaning and origin of this phrase and Cobb never explained. Some people find these words to be unimportant, while others think they are the key to switching the system on.

We have worked with this phrase for decades, and recently did some additional research to understand the meaning behind the phrase to see if its power could be improved.

We believe that Ankar is actually the Hebrew word NawKar. (For those with an interest in Hebrew, this is spelt Nun Kaph Resh.) This word usually means ‘recognized’, but when stated in the active form it can mean ‘to recognise’. So if you ‘state your purpose’ and make the word active, you are saying that you ‘will recognise’.

YOD HAY VAW HAY is one way of pronouncing the Tetragrammaton, the so-called unutterable name of God. As such, ‘I state my purpose thus. ANKAR YOD HAY VAW HAY’, is Cobb’s way of saying, ‘I state that my purpose is to recognize God.’

This statement helps to get Raziel’s attention and cooperation.

However, we think Cobb’s attempt at converting this to an English pronunciation was imperfect, and the best American English pronunciation is:

NAH-KAR YORD HAY VARV HAY

This pronunciation is used in the book.

Cobb did not mention God, possibly because many people were simply seeking results from a magickal book and did not want to get into a relationship with God. In many ways, Cobb was wise, because some people have such a negative reaction to the word ‘God’ that they are turned off by making a call to recognise God. If you were brought up a Christian, for example, and have rejected that faith, the idea of a God ritual may not appeal.

If you believe in God, there’s no problem. If you don’t, then as an occultist you probably believe in some force that creates and provides, and you know that all magick is an attempt to contact and guide this force. Know that when you make the above call, you are reaching out to the creative force of the universe, to recognize it in your life.

When you say NAH-KAR YORD HAY VARV HAY you are calling for magick to thunder through your life.

By making this call you urge Raziel to be much more co-operative, and the system works far, far more effectively. You may also find that your magick provides results that make you appreciate the wonder, dignity and grace of your life more deeply.

Singing To Angels

If you want an angel to hear your request, you should sing.

You've heard about choirs of angels? This is the language they speak. Your singing voice is always heard by an angel. This is one of my favourite occult discoveries.

We got the clue to this when going through all the different versions of The Sixth and Seventh Book of Moses. Most of the original source texts do not refer to angels at all. There is one text, however, that names various angels and also recommends calling them in a specific way, as well as blowing a horn. We didn't have a horn to experiment with, so we tried making a horn-like sound. The best we could do was sing a note. It worked.

If you sing an angel's name the results can be astonishing. You don't need to sing well, or even sing a particular tune. You don't need to sing loudly or impressively. All you need to do is make the angelic name sound as though it is being sung.

When you come to pronounce a name that requires singing, you will see this symbol*. This is the same symbol for picturing a lightning strike. So, when you see * after a name, know that the name should be sung, while picturing the lightning bolt.

If, for example, you are asked to say RAH-ZEE-ELL *, then you should picture the bolt of lightning while singing the name RAH-ZEE-ELL.

It can take some practice to get this right, because you are doing one thing at once, but do not worry about getting this perfectly right. Your intent is more important than perfection.

Preparing For Contact

Depending upon which angel you call, you will need one of the following Shem Talismans. You will notice a small ring of numbers on the inner circle. Later in the book, you will find that each angel has a Magick Number. Use the Talisman that contains your chosen angel's magick number.

Shem Talisman 1

Shem Talisman 2

To create the above talismans for your own use, you have several options. If you have the physical print version of the book, you can photocopy the talismans, cut them out and you are ready to go.

If you have the e-book then you can use print out the templates (shown below), and write in the required names by hand.

To get the talisman templates, go to this page:

<http://galleryofmagick.com/angelic-templates/>

Even if you have the physical book, you may prefer to use this method of writing in the names, as some people report it gives them a stronger sense of connection to the final talisman. This is a matter of personal preference.

Print them out and then write in the words as listed below each template on the following pages. You do not need to use ornate handwriting, but make it clear enough that you can read the words. You should also draw in the tiny dots that join the words to the triangles, as shown in the main images above. Use the images in this book to make sure you've done an accurate job.

If you have no access to a printer at all, you can draw these talismans by hand, although that will require some skill.

Choosing An Angel

In the chapter called The Twenty-Four Angels of Power there is a list of twenty-four angels. All the details you need for contacting each angel are included, along with the required sigil. Most importantly, I list the main powers of each angel. Again, these may not be the traditional powers that you see in some books or on the internet, but working from primary sources, and working with these angels directly for several decades, we have found these to be their main powers.

You must decide which angel suits your task. In some cases, you may want to use two or more angels at once. Avoid using more than one angel unless you really feel you need to do so. One perfectly chosen angel will do a better job than three that might help the situation.

If you do use more than one angel on a single problem, you should perform the ritual with your request for one angel, finish it, and then repeat the entire process for the next angel, on the same day. This is quite time consuming, but works better than cramming several sigils onto your table and making a mass of requests to several angels at once.

If you can, choose one angel that best suits your needs.

Sometimes, it will take a little thought to work out how the power applies to you. If an angel is said to have the power to Destroy Enemies, it's fairly clear when you would use that angel. If you have an enemy, you can choose to destroy them. There is a lot of freedom in how you interpret this, though. You could choose to destroy your enemy's ability to harm you, their ability to work effectively, or you could destroy their personal life or health. The angels can do any of this, so remember that for every description, there is a wide interpretation. You are the one who chooses how the angel's power will be used.

There is no karmic backlash. If you earn great wealth, you will not be punished with poverty. If you stop an enemy from ruining your life, you will not be burned at a later date.

Magick is about making choices, and impressing those choices on reality, rather than being subject to the whims of chaos or the decisions of those who would exploit or harm you.

Also be aware that some of the more obscure-sounding powers are actually some of the most useful. When scanning through the book to see which powers you want to use, it's tempting to go straight to Poel for fame, wealth and to have all your desires met. If you are planning wisely, though, you might first want to Learn About Desires Through Dreams. This doesn't sound half as impressive as instant wealth, but one of the most difficult jobs we have in magick is choosing exactly what we want. Often, we think we know what we want, perform the magick, get what we asked for and regret it greatly. I could fill a book with such stories. So learning about desires in dreams has its value.

As you read through the book, be wary of leaping for the quick fixes, and know there is enormous benefit to be obtained from all these powers.

The only way to choose one, is to read about the powers of all twenty-four angels, become familiar with what they can do, and know exactly what it is that you want to change.

Please do not write to me to ask which angel is suited to a particular problem, because I could never answer as well as you can. When you read about the angel, you will get an intuitive feeling for what it can achieve. The basic descriptions I give are a starting point, and all angels have additional powers, which may be revealed to you as you work with them. So have the confidence to choose the angel for yourself. This forces you to really analyse your problem in the first place, and sometimes that can be half the battle.

Once you have chosen your angel, learn how to pronounce the name and the relevant invocation chant, and study the sigil for a few minutes. This is the only preparation you need.

Crafting Your Request

For each angel you will find a descriptive outline of the powers and skills of that particular angel, but I have not written down the request you should make to the angel, because it is far more powerful to write your own request and then read it out during the ritual.

You may feel that talking directly to the angel - without anything written down - is more appealing, and that can work. When you are starting out, however, I suggest writing down something that is clear, precise and not too long. You do not need to spend fifteen minutes explaining to the angel why you want some extra money. You only need to ask.

When I describe the Master Ritual later in this book I use the example of a struggling writer who wants more success. As such, he has chosen Poiei (pronounced POY-ELL), because two of Poiei's powers are described as To Increase Fame and Fortune and To Bring Fame Through Talent. Those are ideal for a struggling writer who truly believes his talent deserves to be recognized, and who is in need of some unexpected money and ongoing wealth to give him the time to write.

Step 1: Opening the call

Your call should always begin your call with: 'I call on Thee, powerful POY-ELL (or whichever angel you are calling), who has power to...', and then you add the angel's powers as you see them.

Based on what you have read in this book, and what you are seeking, come up with a phrase that sums up the angel's powers. Again, don't worry about getting this right. Perfection is not required. By naming the powers, you are asking the angel to use these powers.

In this example, the struggling writer might say, 'I call on Thee, powerful POY-ELL, who has power to bring fame, success and fortune that is asked for.'

You could just as easily write, 'I call on Thee, powerful POY-ELL, who has power to help writers.' You could even say, 'I call on Thee, powerful POY-ELL, who has power to bring me fame through my talents.'

I could have included samples for every angel, but it does not work as well that way. It works best when you write your own.

Step 2: The Summary

After this opening call you should summarise what it is that you want, stating, 'It is my will...' and then summarising your desire in a short sentence.

Here, an ideal statement would be, 'It is my will to become a wealthy and successful writer.'

Do not write, 'It is my will to become a wealthy writer by publishing my first novel, Adventures In Timber Town, through Deep Harbour Publishing.' Although there are times when you want to target your magick this directly, for a general request for increased success in an area, leave room for general success.

There will be more on this subject later, but be careful of limiting your magick by being too specific. If, of course, the whole aim of your ritual is to obtain an exceptionally specific result, such as 'It is my will to sign with the literary agent Morvine Barnes,' then say exactly that. But when you are seeking general success in an area, phrase it so that you give the angel room to surprise you. When you leave the magick open, angels have more ways to bring you the fame you want. Unexpected results that give you what you want are often the best results.

Step 3: Sending Out Feelings

You now write, 'I ask that you go forth and...' Here you state what you want in a little more detail, and instead of focussing on how you want to result to manifest, you focus on how the manifestation will make you feel.

In this example you might say, 'I ask that you go forth and bring me money in the form of good fortune, that will give me the wealth I need to write freely and happily. I ask that you go forth and make all my books sell extremely well, bringing me wealth and success.'

Whatever you write should create a positive emotional reaction in you, and a sense of how exciting that result would be.

Step 4: The Moment of Alchemy

Once you have stated your desire, you should make a statement about the change you want to occur. Magick is a process of alchemy, where you and your circumstances change.

Rather than focussing purely on the positive, magick works best when you focus on the discomfort you feel, and then imagine how those feelings will change when the magick works.

You are not pleading with the angel or trying to justify your actions. You are showing where you have been and where you are going, and how the magick will benefit you.

Do not try to sound worthy or to justify your actions. Concentrate on honestly explaining your feelings, with brief, clear sentences.

In this example, our struggling writer might now say, 'I have suffered for years without being able to write. I have felt great pain in my current employment. I ask for enough money to come to me that I can become a fulltime writer and live out the gift I was born with. I ask for this transformation, and I feel the change you can bring, as I become a wealthy and successful writer.'

Note how this states the past problem, and acknowledges what it will feel like to have the transformation take place. When you actually say the words during the ritual you should remember your pain or discomfort or anger at the current situation, and as you continue talking, feel the relief that the magick will bring. This moment of emotional alchemy is absolutely essential for the success of the ritual.

Step 5: The Promise

In the next section you need to show that you will be involved with the magick, and that you are offering to contribute to the process. This will vary depending on what you are asking. If you are asking for protection from an enemy, there may not be much you can do other than remain as confident and calm as possible. That will do. In most cases, however, you will get a general sense of what you can do to help the situation. Again, don't be too specific here. Our writer should not make a list of promises about what novels he plans to complete, or suggest any timeline. Instead, something like this would work. 'I will do my work as a writer, and I let go of all hope and confusion, for I know that you can bring me what I need.'

Notice that as well as offering to get involved, this statement also shows the intention to believe in the magick. Make this promise even if you have doubts about the magick. The intention to let go of fear, doubt, confusion and even hope, while knowing that the angel will help, can lead to you opening up to magickal results.

Step 6: Closing Your Request

The final part of your request should always be the same.

'I seal this request with the word of power: ANAPHAXETON (ANNA-FAX-EAT-ON). As you angels have come in peace, go in peace. It is done.'

Writing a good, clear request, using these steps, will lead to effective magick. Once again, don't overthink this and spend weeks crafting the perfect request. Angels listen if you say nothing more than, 'Help me out of my misery'. But if you want the best and most direct results, then wording your request as described is the best approach.

Targeting Your Magick

Often you want general results, but sometimes you want extremely specific results.

Rather than requesting peace in your neighbourhood, you may want a specific neighbour to shut up or move away. Instead of hoping for more success in your music career, you might want to book a gig at a particular venue. If you work in sales or the markets, you might want results that are directed at those income streams.

Most of the time, when people write to me, it is because they are looking for specific results, and this is why the books I write are often aimed at specific areas, such as brining in quick money, building wealth or finding romantic partners. How does this relate to angels?

Although I always recommend trying a general approach where possible – because it leaves more room for the spirits to do their work with more imagination than you could dream of – the fabulous thing about angels is that you can be extremely specific. The danger here is that if you are too specific you may reduce your chances of getting a result.

You need to develop the skill of knowing when to be specific and when to be general. If you want more money, then do general wealth workings. If you want to get a particular product you're selling to be more popular, then you can do a ritual for that product.

An approach that many of us use is to do a general working, and then follow it up with a specific working. Some years ago I was living in a relatively pleasant area, but there were some terrible fights all around, inside houses and sometimes in the street. The whole area began to feel aggressive. I knew that if I tried a specific working to get the most troublesome family to leave, I would have limited results, because there was still so much fiery energy in the street. So first I did a working to bring general calm to the area, and then I did a working to make the family quieter and calmer. Finally, I did a working to get them to leave. That was a lot of work and quite a bit of magickal effort on my part, but compared to the endless hours of screaming and fighting, it was worthwhile.

Only you can judge what will work for you. If you try something specific and don't get the result you want within a few weeks, you might want to try something more general, and then move to the specific.

If there's a really strong sense of urgency, however, then go straight for the specific. If you're being attacked by a cruel enemy, then perform magick to subdue and silence that enemy until you can plan your next move.

Angelic magick requires a flexible approach. General workings are extremely powerful and will continue to affect your life for months to come, but when you want to direct your magick to something more specific, you can.

I will repeat the warning. Do not go for the specific unless it's required. In the example of our struggling writer, I suggested an open approach, because there are so many pathways to success. If he had pushed one novel, to one publisher, his chances of success would be limited and failure would remain more likely than success. By seeking more income to write, and more success as a writer in general, he was giving the magick a chance to work in hundreds of unexpected ways. Often, that is exactly what you want.

Feeding The Angels

Many people feel that they should offer the angels something for their work, such as incense, candles or prayers. In my experience this is not required, and merely wastes time and makes a mess, but one thing angels do appreciate is when you share the benefits of your magick. This is not essential every time, but when you can share magickal results it is a good habit to get into.

When you perform a ritual for yourself, and give some of the resulting energy or result away, your own results will be improved. This is not an essential part of the process, and it doesn't work for everything. If you are seeking the love of a particular partner, for example, that's not really energy you want to share around. If you want to protect your home or earn more money, however, you can certainly share that.

I've never been a big fan of tithing. Giving away ten percent of your income without thinking about it or feeling it is like taxing yourself all over again for no good reason. If you like giving, you should enjoy the act of giving as an experience. I've met many people who tithe and think it would be wrong to tithe with the intention of making more money, so when they give they try to pretend it's purely for the good of the other person. That seems like self-deception at best, and also a wasted opportunity.

Giving works best when you actually enjoy it, and when you revel in the knowledge that giving will bring you more as well. This is true whether you're giving away cash, gifts or magickal results and energy.

There are two main reasons that giving is good. The obvious reason is that it helps others, and as you become more powerful that just seems like the right thing to do. We'll not talk about karma, but let's just say it's wise to share the love.

Another reason, and the more 'selfish reason', is that when you get good at giving, you get better at receiving. This is what all the new age and self help books tell you. What they don't tell you is that you can give magickal power instead of money, and that this works best when you are using spirits such as angels.

How does this work in practice? When you are writing your request, before you come to Step 6, all you need to do is write something along the lines of, 'Share the benefits of this magick with...' You can then name a specific person, the people in your street or anybody else you like. You can even offer the magickal result to 'those who need it most.'

If you like you can get specific with percentages, or even give half away. You can talk to the spirits in detail, at this point. Often I will say, 'Please share ten percent of this magickal result with my loved ones'. Most importantly, feel pleasure in the act of giving out of pure generosity, but also feel pleasure in knowing this can bring more to you.

This approach flies in the face of most of the new age books, which suggest giving should be selfless. They clearly haven't tried to above method.

You can pass the result on to somebody you love, somebody you loathe or pick a stranger. The act of sharing your magick in this way can make it more enjoyable and often makes it more effective. Don't feel obliged to use this technique every time. If the magickal result feels like an energy that should be kept to yourself, then keep it to yourself. The angels do not judge.

What if you simply want to help another person using magick, without gaining any results for yourself? Many occultists advise against doing magick for others without their knowledge, because you may be interfering with their True Will, but I have never found this to be a problem. Every interaction we have with another human could be seen as interference. Angel magick can easily be directed at others. If you feel the urge to help somebody in the real world, feel free to perform magick for them, but keep the magickal act secret even when the result manifests.

Practice and Pronunciation

The rituals in this book contain many names, sounds and phrases that will not be familiar to you. The words are sometimes English, Latin, Hebrew, and there are some words with obscure origins. Everything can be pronounced in several ways, depending on how you interpret the original language, your native language, age, education and your local accent. I have included a phonetic pronunciation beneath the words in BOLD CAPITALS. This is the pronunciation that will work.

So where it says ‘Kosu harim silah va'anafeha arz-El’ you will see the words KOH-SUE HAR-IM SIL-AH VA-ANNA-FEHA ARE-ZELL in capitals. The capitalised words are a pronunciation guide, showing you exactly how to say the words.

Many people would pronounce these words differently. The pronunciation contained in this book is not always conventional or even consistent, but has been carefully researched and tested to get results. You can trust that it will work.

Let the words vibrate from the base of your lungs, rising through your throat and out of your mouth as though you are speaking them to the horizon. They should not be whispered, but allowed to resonate in your throat as they pass out of you, especially when the words are sung. You don’t need to sing the whole ritual, but if you feel the urge to, there’s no reason why you can’t.

Letting the words vibrate not always be possible, if you require privacy. If you can not say them out loud, whispering is better than nothing. If you must perform the work in silence, you can say the words in you head. Ideally, find a time and space where you can rattle them out of your throat as though you are calling to the ends of the universe.

For each angel there is also an Invocation Chant. This is a Latin phrase associated with the angel, taken from a psalm. If you Google these angels, you will probably find a variety of alternative psalm verses used to invoke these angels. To explain why we use these verses, and not the more popular ones, would mean going into the full history of how we found our primary sources. That is not the purpose of this book. What can be said is that we have avoided some of the more modern choices, and some of the mistakes reproduced in recent books, and looked to the difficult-to-obtain texts to find the best verses, in the best form of Latin, with a useable pronunciation. After extensive testing, and communicating with the angels, we know these verses will work.

Using The Sigil

During the Master Ritual you will have the Shem Talisman on your left, and the angel's sigil on your right. You can use a printed copy of the angelic sigl, or just place your iPad or other tablet device on your right.

This is an example of a sigil:

The lines in the exact center are the angelic seal for the particular angel you are calling. In this sigil, they look like this:

If you are viewing this in color, you will see that the angelic seal in the center is colored red. If you are able to print the sigil with colored ink, or use it on a device that shows color, that is perfect. If not, then simply know that the angelic seal in the center can be thought of as red. You can imagine it as red if you like. Do not worry that the magick will fail unless you use red ink. When we first developed this sigil we didn't use colors for over a decade. This is a refinement that can help, but it isn't vital.

The rest of the symbol is made up of words of power and phrases that protect you and make the magick effective, while naming the angel in Hebrew and an angelic script. The invocation chant encircles the central square.

During the ritual, you should look at this sigil just before calling the angel's name. In particular, look at the angel's seal at the very center. You do not need to stare or focus too hard. Simply be aware of the shape and that will help establish contact.

Eleven Days of Angelic Contact

Begin your working on a Thursday and continue the working for eleven days, so that the last time you perform the ritual is on a Sunday.

If you miss a day, due to unforeseen circumstances, do not try to catch up, but simply continue as before and finish on a Sunday. If you miss a day because you were lazy or lost interest, start again on the following Thursday, refining the ritual if need be.

Any time of day is fine, although some people say the hour before sunrise is best.

Contact is made from the moment you begin, and results may come about within minutes, hours or days, but continue the working for the full eleven days even when result show early.

The Master Ritual

This chapter explains the Master Ritual used to contact and communicate with angels. In this example we will use the angel Poiel, being called to help a writer be more successful. You will see that there are various instructions, and certain things you have to say and do.

This example is used to familiarize you with the ritual, but these instructions and wordings are simplified and listed clearly in Appendix A: The Master Ritual Simplified, so you can construct a ritual for each angel yourself.

Note that each time you see this symbol *, this is a moment where you perform the magickal lightning strike described in the earlier chapter, as well as singing the angelic name.

Find a time and place where you will not be disturbed.

Face East, with a small table before you, or kneel and use the floor.

Choose the Shem Talisman the contains your angel's magick number. Place the talisman before you, on your left. Rotate the talisman so that your chosen number is pointing away from you, to the East. In this case, we have chosen Poiel, whose magick number is 56. Place the angelic sigil you have chosen on your right

In this case, the arrangement would look like this:

Or, if you're using an iPad or other tablet it would look like this:

Say:

This is the beginning. I open the way.

Reach forward and make a gesture as though opening drapes or curtains, parting them so you can pass through.

Say:

I call on the inner planes to witness. I state my purpose thus.

NAH-KAR YORD HAY VARV HAY

NAH-KAR YORD HAY VARV HAY

NAH-KAR YORD HAY VARV HAY

Picture the following images as clearly as you can as you say:

I pass through the arch of stone.
I walk through a field of golden corn.
I am warmed by fire of the sun.
I am cooled by water of the ocean.
I am steady on the firm earth.
I breathe a sweet breeze.
I feel the weight of the earth beneath me.

Ask these questions of yourself, out loud, but do not attempt to answer them in any way:

I ask, how did I come to be at peace?
I ask, how did I let go of fear?
I ask, how did I learn to manifest my dreams?

Imagine an orange glow on your left. Imagine a purple glow on your right. Imagine these lights for just a few moments

Say:

I call on Thee, Mighty Arzel (ARE-ZELL)*, who stands in the East, to assist me in this and all my endeavours.

Kosu harim silah va'anafeha arz-El
(KOH-SUE HAR-IM SIL-AH VA-ANNA-FEHA ARE-ZELL)

ARE-ZELL*, ARE-ZELL*, ARE-ZELL*

ARZ-ALE*, ARZ-ALE*, ARZ-ALE*

ARE-ZAY-ELL*, ARE-ZAY-ELL*, ARE-ZAY-ELL*

I call on Thee, Mighty Raziel (RAH-ZEE-ELL*), who stands in the East to make me heard by the secret angels of the universe.

RAH-ZEE-ELL*, RAH-ZEE-ELL*, RAH-ZEE-ELL*

Specie tua et pulchritudine tua intende, prospere procede, et regna, propter veritatem,
et mansuetudinem, et justitiam,
et deducet te mirabiliter dextera tua.

Pronounced:

(SPECK-EE-AY TWO-ARE ET PULL-CRIT-OO-DIN-AY
TWO-AH INT-EN-DAY,
PROS-PAIR-AY PROK-EDD-AY
ET REG-NAR, PROP-TER, VERY-TA-TEM, ET MAN-SUE-EH-TWO-DIN-EM,
ET JUST-IT-EE-AM,
ET DEAD-UCK-ET TAY MEE-RAH-BILL-IT-ERR DEX-TERRA TWO-ARE.)

Oh mighty Raziel (RAH-ZEE-ELL*), let my voice be heard by the great angel Poel (POY-ELL *)
I seal this request with the word of power
Anaphaxeton (ANNA-FAX-EAT-ON).

Make The Invocation Chant:

AL-LEVAT DOMIN-US
OM-NES KEY COR-OO-UNT
ER ERI-GIT OM-NES ELI-SOS

Glance at the sigil and Sing the Angel's name three times:

POY-ELL *, POY-ELL *, POY-ELL *

Speak Your Request To The Angel:

I call on Thee, powerful POY-ELL *, who has power to bring fame, success and fortune that is asked for.

It is my will to become a wealthy and successful writer.

I ask that you go forth and bring me money in the form of good fortune, that will give me the wealth I need to write freely and happily.
I ask that you go forth and make all my books sell extremely well, bringing me wealth and success.

I have suffered for years without being able to write.
I have felt great pain in my current employment.
I ask for enough money to come to me that I can become a fulltime writer and live out the gift I was born with.
I ask for this transformation,
and I feel the change you can bring,
as I become a wealthy and successful writer.

I will do my work as a writer,
and I let go of all hope and confusion,
for I know that you can bring me what I need.

I seal this request with the word of power:
ANAPHAXETON (ANNA-FAX-EAT-ON).

As you angels have come in peace, go in peace. It is done.

What is the Experience of Contact Like?

For some people, the experience of angelic contact is nothing more than a ritualistic activity done to get results. For others, a sense of direct contact with the angel occurs. In more developed relationships you can communicate directly with the angel and hear responses. If you are seeking results, then the form of contact you make is irrelevant, because the angel has heard and you will get your results.

You can, however, seek more direct contact with the angel, if you want to hear the angel speak, sense its presence or even glimpse a flash of its reality.

It's important to note that you do not need to sense the angel's presence. I've heard people worry about angelic magick, because they didn't see a huge, glowing, winged being appear before them. There is no need to worry, because sensing the angels is secondary to getting results. This chapter is included for two reasons. Firstly, it is something that many people have requested. Secondly, the magickal practice explained here is a good way to start evoking angels if that's something you're interested in doing.

When you perform the rituals as outlined, your experience is your own, so don't be worried about what happens. Some people sense peace, others sense power. You may feel cold enter the room, or even a wave of heat. Many people see small flashes of light, or catch a glimpse of the angel. For lots of people there is simply a tingle down the spine as you sense the angel being close by. For a lot of people, though, there is no sensation at all, and that is fine.

If you want to develop your connection to the angels into a more direct contact then there are several things you can do.

Make sure that you use all your imaginative faculties when performing the ritual. When you say the words, 'I pass through the arch of stone. I walk through a field of golden corn,' and so on, imagine this with all your senses. Picture a stone archway of any kind in any location, but imagine how it looks, feel the sun or cold wind on your skin, smell the surrounding grass, water or earth, and let your hands brush the stone as you pass. When you move through the corn, hear it rustle, smell the air, see the shimmering corn. If you don't have a powerful imagination, keep working at this and it will improve.

When you ask the questions that begin with, 'I ask, how did I come to be at peace?', leave your mind blank. You are asking these questions to the void, as though they are true, and you should seek no answer.

Most importantly, when you call an angel's name do this with the feeling that you are actually calling to a real entity that exists and can hear you. This may sound obvious, but many people perform the rituals and make the calls into the room, or to themselves, rather than directly to the angel.

To get an idea of what I mean, sit in a room by yourself and say the words, 'Stop doing that.' It's meaningless, and doesn't have much impact. Now imagine there's somebody on the other side of the room, breaking something precious of yours. Say it again. You'll notice there's not only a difference in your voice, but even though you are pretending, it feels as though you are saying it to somebody. This is how you contact angels. You imagine they are there. You don't need to picture them, but you need to imagine that they are there, and that you are actually talking to them rather than simply saying their names.

If you call the name of a friend, you expect your friend to pay attention. It's the same with an angel. When you call that name, know you are heard.

You must now follow this up by leaving space for the angel to respond. If you simply call out and then continue with the ritual, or end the ritual, there isn't much chance for the angel to respond. It's like calling out to your friend, and before you get an answer you start talking again.

Leave some space for the angel. Wait a while in silence.

You can do this when you call the angel's name three times. At that point, wait in silence for a few moments, or minutes, allowing yourself to sense the angel. Do not force yourself to imagine, do not try to see or sense the angel. All you need do is remain quiet and know that the angel you have called is present. Imagine that you are sitting quietly with a friend, and nothing needs to be said. Remain aware of the angel's presence. If the angel wants to make itself known, seen or heard, it will happen. Do not strive for this. Leave room for it, and let whatever happens happen. If you feel nothing, know you have been heard by the angel anyway, and continue with the ritual.

Some people get some sense of the angel immediately. For others it takes practice.

If you get a strong connection with the angel, this is one you can develop. You can construct a ritual for this exact purpose, purely to contact the angel and seek its wisdom. Word your request to the angel, asking for direct contact, saying why you want to make contact and what sort of wisdom you are seeking.

You will get the best results if you ask an angel about subjects it is closely associated with. If you want to talk to an angel about love or passion, then find an angel whose powers are associated with love and passion.

In this kind of ritual, you can leave some time at the end of the ritual for the angel to respond, but you should also allow the angel to make contact in other ways, and expect dreams, flashes of insight and intuition, along with strings of coincidences.

If you work with these methods, you should gain some sense of an angel's presence, and more gifted people will be able to communicate directly with angels. Remember, though, that you can get results even if it feels like there's nothing listening and no magick happening. So long as you act as though the magick is real it will work for you.

After The Ritual

When you perform magick, one of the most difficult things to do is ‘let go’, and yet most people agree that if you long for results, they evade you. The best magick usually happens when you perform a ritual and genuinely forget about it.

In most magick books, especially those for beginners, you are told that if you Lust For Result, you cancel out your magick. That isn’t always the case, but it happens so often that we all worry about lusting for results.

It’s certainly true that letting go helps, because you get out of the way of the magick. It’s as though you’re handing it over to somebody else to deal with and trusting they can do the job. Imagine asking somebody to drive you to the airport, and then giving them directions the whole way when you don’t even know the way. You’d annoy the driver and probably get lost. It’s best if you sit back and let them take you to the airport. Let go, trust you’ll get there and you will. It doesn’t matter how.

I once helped instruct an actor to create a servitor to assist with finding an agent in a new country. Tired of being shunned in his own country, he’d planned a move to the US. He sent out his CV and showreel to a bunch of agents and performed that magick we’d discussed. He expected to be ignored, because he’d been ignored for two years in his own country. It wasn’t that he doubted the magick. He just thought it would take a few months for people to pay him any attention, so he forgot about it all and got on with his life. The next morning, four agents asked to meet him.

If he’d been sitting there all night, wondering how well it was going, who would reply, what they thought of him, it would not have worked so well.

If you can find a way to let go, that’s ideal. Having absolute trust in your magick is one way. But many people find it difficult to let go because when you do magick you are, after all, trying to change things in the world. You’re doing magick because you really want something.

It is perfectly fine to desire your result, even though many occultists would say you should let go of all desire. If you find yourself thinking about the result you’re aiming for, you shouldn’t panic and worry that your Lust For Result is ruining your work. Instead, simply imagine that the end result has come about and feels good. Don’t try to work out how it came about, just imagine that it did. Take a moment to do this and your lust for result will fade.

This is such a simple technique that it’s easy to dismiss, but it’s very powerful. It’s far better to use this small trick, than to put a lot of energy into avoiding thinking about the result you want.

Also, it’s important to open the pathways. That is, if you’re doing money magick, you should be out there doing something that can bring in money – seek opportunities. Don’t just sit and wait for cash to arrive. Cash does arrive out of the blue, sometimes, but if you want it on a regular basis, you must open the pathways for the magick to work by actually pushing your life forward.

You will constantly be thinking about your magickal results. You have to. You can’t do magick to further your career and then forget about your career.

It’s OK to really, really desire your result, so long as you don’t dwell. If you find yourself worrying, dwelling, hoping or – worst of all – wondering how the magick will manifest, then you need to occupy your mind. Imagine the end result, feel good about it, as though it’s already happened. Then get on with something else.

This way, you can keep thinking about your magick, keep working towards your results, and Lust For Result is no longer a danger.

It does help, however, if you open yourself to feelings of enjoyment and gratitude with where you are in the present moment. When you are enjoying, you are not wanting, and so you open yourself to receiving. The more time you can spend each day appreciating what you have and where you are, the more open you are to change. For more details on this, read about The Daily Practice in Wealth Magick.

Creating A Ritual

In summary, these are the steps you should take.

Prepare your Shem Talismans. (If you own Wealth Magick you can use the Orante Gesture taught there to empower these talismans, but do not use that gesture on the angelic sigils.)

Get everything ready to begin your working on a Thursday.

Decide what you want and which angel to use.

Write down your request as detailed.

You may find it beneficial to write out the entire ritual (or print it out).

Place the Shem Talisman on your left, with the correct Magick Number facing forward to the East. Place the correct angelic sigil on your right.

Perform the Master Ritual, using the imagination techniques you have learned, and empowering the work with feelings as you read your request.

Perform the ritual once a day for eleven days, at any time you like, completing the working on a Sunday.

Let go and know that it is done and that results will come.

The Twenty-Four Angels of Power

The following pages give you all the names, pronunciations, numbers, sigils and chants you need, along with a list of all the angels' powers.

The Powers of Vehuiah

To Carry Out A Difficult Task

Useful when you are trying to complete a task but have faced many difficulties. Also useful when you are worried that a task will be difficult, because you feel the task stretches your abilities. Ideal for tasks that are wearing you out and that feel impossible to complete.

To Strengthen Your Will

If you feel your will power fading in general, you can use this angel to strengthen your will. Also ideal for strengthening your will to complete a task, or to help you stick to a promise or resolution. If you're trying to give up a habit or develop a new, positive habit, this angel will help.

To Obtain Esteem

Many angels can help with esteem, but this angel is best used when you want to increase your self-esteem and have that improvement be perceived by others. This makes you appear more confident and in control. This is also an excellent angel for improving your own sense of charisma, enabling you to seem charismatic to others.

To Create Passionate Sex

When you want to increase the passion between yourself and your current lover, this angel can help. You can perform the ritual with or without the knowledge of your partner and the passion will increase. This can be used when your sex life has become dull or infrequent, or if you want to expand your sex life into more adventurous areas.

To Bring Calm Between Arguing Lovers

This angel can be used on your own relationship, when you find yourselves arguing all the time. If arguments seem to be weighing down an otherwise healthy relationship, or the arguments are becoming more aggressive than healthy arguments should be, this is the ideal angel. You can also use this angel to calm other couples you know, if they are arguing. This is especially useful if you have loud, arguing neighbors.

To Attract Love

You can use this angel to improve your chances of attracting love. If you have a particular person in mind, this is not the right angel, but if you want to improve the amount of love in your life, this is the way. You can use the angel to attract friends or lovers.

To Ensure Fidelity

If you sense that your partner may be seeking love elsewhere, this angel can reduce their temptation. A side-effect of this, however, can be that your partner feels a strong urge to tell you about the feelings of infidelity. This can potentially end or heal a relationship, so proceed carefully. You can also use this angel on others. If you sense that your parents, for example, may be indulging in relationships outside of their partnership, you could use this angel to discourage the infidelity to restore their love and focus on each other.

To Protect Against Adversity

If you have been experiencing a time of extended misfortune that's made you wonder whether you're cursed, this angel can reverse the misfortune. If you are in real danger from somebody you know, either physical or emotional, this is also a good angel to employ. When times are hard, and you are struggling to get any of your projects to work, this angel can help to improve your luck.

To Discover Truth

There are times when you want to discover whether somebody is telling you the truth. If you suspect that somebody is lying to you, within a relationship, at work or in any other situation, use this angel to find out. The answer may come in the form of a confession, strong intuition or a dream.

To Stop Hypocrisy

People often say one thing and then do another. Most of the time, this is a minor annoyance, but if somebody's hypocrisy damages your life in some way, use this angel. If you have a friend that tells you not to gossip, but spreads gossip about you, this angel would be ideal. If you know somebody who complains about bad debtors, but never pays up, this is the angel you need. Within a relationship you can use this angel to calm an annoying trait in your partner.

To Find Employment

This angel is used by those looking for work, and good results are reported those looking for a new job, a promotion or a complete change of career. Be clear about what sort of work you are looking for and you will see progress.

To Inspire Love in Another

When you want somebody to love you, this is the angel that can help. This works even when the person barely knows you or has shown no previous interest, but only if your intention is to seek a loving relationship, rather than a mere seduction or casual fling. Don't sit back and wait for the lover to seek you out, but notice any changes in their attitude and then act to develop the love between the two of you.

To Attract Fame Through Talents

If you are trying to become famous through a particular talent, this angel will help. The angel is especially suited to artistic talents, so if you are a writer, musician or artist, you can ask for your talents to be recognized more widely. This angel will not necessarily earn you more money or improve your career, but can make you better known because of your particular talent.

To Increase Luck In Relation To Ambition

If you have strong ambition in any area, whether artistic, financial or personal, this angel will bring you improved luck to help you reach your ambition.

Inspiration For Artists

Most artists suffer from blockages when inspiration fails to strike. If you are going through one of these times, seek help from this angel and allow yourself to create experimentally. The results are extremely powerful.

This angel is particularly useful if you are trying to be recognized or appreciated by figures who are normally difficult to impress – such as literary agents, publishers and other gatekeepers of the creative arts. When you want to rise through the ranks of an organization, this angel can ensure you are seen and liked by those at the top.

Make Somebody Fulfill A Promise

When somebody makes a promise of any kind, and then fails to follow through, use this angel to make them fulfill the promise. This works well when you are owed money, but is valuable in personal and professional situations as well.

Inspires Writers and Artists

Many angels are useful to artists, but this particular angel is useful when you are already working on a project, but need a boost of inspiration to improve the project or see it through to completion.

Reunites Lovers

This angel can be used to bring back the attraction and friendship of a relationship. You can use this angel on a failing relationship, on a lover who has left you, or a lover that you left. The angel will not heal the problems that caused that separation in the first place, so be prepared to work on the relationship once it begins again.

Passing Exams and Tests

This angel helps you to pass exams and tests of any kind. The key the getting this to work is to begin the magick long before the test, because the angel helps with understanding and memory, making you more capable of passing the test.

Learn The Plans of An Enemy

When you suspect that an enemy is making plans, you need to find out what they are planning. There is no more powerful weapon than information, so use this to see how somebody is planning to harm you. This can even be used on non-enemies; if you have a competitor in business, you can learn their plans through this angel. The answer may come in dreams, through coincidences or through gossip and revelations made by others.

Wealth, Fame and Success

This angel can help to promote wealth, fame and success, especially when you are working on all three aspects at once. If your success does not involve some level of fame or notoriety, then you may prefer to use a different angel. When your business, work or art involves fame and the potential to make money, this is the angel you need. If you are working on a career that requires fame, but have not yet achieved any, this angel can help to get you known.

Protection While Travelling

Before you travel – whether for work or pleasure - ask for protection from this angel, to save you from physical harm, robbery, illness or anything else you fear while travelling.

Good Luck When Making Deals

If you're selling a house, or trying to sign a contract of any kind this is the angel you want. It helps if you've already got some interest for your project, and you're at the point where you're negotiating a contract. This can work for any project where you're negotiating a deal. It works for all aspects of negotiation, not just the financial side. Whatever deal you are working on, your luck will be improved.

Give Power To Magick

If you're using any other magick, from my books or elsewhere, use this angel to bring extra power to your magick. Sometimes there are blockages that prevent magick from working. The angel may remove them or make you aware of changes you need to make to get the magick working. Use this when magick isn't going the way you want, or if it's a ritual of extreme significance to you.

Discover Hidden Secrets

This angel can be used in two ways. If you know that something is being hidden from you, ask this angel to bring the information to you. Secondly, it can be used when you are trying to learn more about a particular person, company or situation. This sort of intelligence gathering is often neglected by occultists, but it can be more important to know the secrets that surround a situation than to attack a problem blindly.

Reveal Truth In Dreams

Sometimes it is difficult to discover the truth about a situation, and even when there is evidence in front of you, it can be impossible for you to be certain about what's going on. When you need to know the truth about something, ask this angel to reveal the truth in a dream. The angel does not predict the future, but will reveal the truth to you about any current situation, or somebody's thoughts and intentions.

Inspirational Ideas For Your Profession

Whatever work you do, whether you're employed or in business, you need good ideas. This is how you rise through the ranks, create new marketing opportunities or develop new products and directions for your work. The inspiration may come in bursts, or can manifest as a gradual awakening of ideas.

Remain Unseen

There are times when you would rather not be seen. This angel can not make you invisible, but it can make you inconspicuous. If you are going somewhere and would rather not be noticed, call on this angel. Destroy The Plans of An Enemy

When you know somebody is trying to bring harm to you, this is the angel to call. The angel works best when you know your enemy and what they plan to do to you.

Make Superiors See The Truth

If you are falsely accused of something and you need your boss or other superior to know the truth, call on this angel. This angel can also be useful if you are accused of an offence you did not commit, and can help everybody to see your innocence.

Manifest Material Desires

If you have a strong material desire, this angel can help. If you covet something as simple as a new guitar, or even a new house, call on this angel. Don't aim for something that is too far out of reach, but focus on a desire that is strong but seems to be just a little too difficult to obtain right now. The angel can speed the manifestation up. If you are actively working other forms of magick to produce money or other material desires, use this angel to empower those workings and you will get stronger and faster results. This angel is also used by people who work in sales, to increase success.

Destroy Enemies

When you are bullied, subjugated, persecuted or harmed by an enemy that will not give up, you want to destroy your enemy. This angel can be used to curse your enemies and bring harm to them, such as bad luck or ill health. The angel can be used to bind them and keep them quiet. If you want a more subtle approach you can destroy your enemy's ability to harm you or their ability to work or think effectively. When calling on this angel, remember the pain your enemy has brought to you as clearly as you can.

Punish A Cruel Superior

If you are being bothered or bullied by somebody who ranks higher than you, in your organization or in life, call on this angel to subdue and punish that person. The so-called 'superior' may be an employer, somebody in your company, a personal you deal with, or even a friend or neighbor who acts as though they are superior. This angel will punish the person by bringing harm and discomfort if you ask for that, but you can simply ask that the person stops being cruel and feels terrible guilt and remorse.

Develop A Reputation of Power

Bullying happens all the time in all kinds of relationships, from the most personal to the professional. It can happen online, in person and sometimes so subtly that you don't even realize the harm that's being done. To avoid people trying to bully you or take advantage of you, develop a reputation of power. This enables you to be seen as a good, friendly and strong person, without having to look angry or aggressive. In many situations, this reputation of power and control is the best possible approach to protecting yourself and projecting yourself to greater success.

Discover Hidden Treasure

When you need extra money, call on this angel to bring money from unexpected sources. You may find that you are owed money, or you get refunds, or that some other source provides money from out of the blue. This approach is best when you want a surprise boost of cash, rather than a huge shift in your earnings. If you are somebody who works in an industry where you actually seek out treasure – such as the antiques trade, mining or exploration, then the angel can work absolute miracles.

Learn About Desires Through Dreams

If you aren't certain what you want, it's a terrible thing. When you see an actor, business owner or politician working with single-minded determination, it feels terrible if you aren't sure what you want. The truth may be that you only want a simple life, or a little more money, but your desires may be more daring. If you're ever uncertain of your path, call on the wisdom of this angel to open your eyes to your true desires.

Planning With A Strong and Subtle Mind

Before you begin a major project of any kind – from asking somebody out, to taking over another company - you need to plan with a subtle mind. When you are faced with a major challenge, call on this angel to give you the time and space to plan quietly and discreetly. Help With Legal Decisions

When you need a legal decision to fall in your favor, call on this angel. If you can name the judge, or other person of power, that will help, but it is not an absolute requirement. This angel can also help you to be wise when making a legal decision. If you are about to respond to a legal action, or take legal action yourself, call on this angel to give you the wisdom and clarity you desire.

To Help A Good Decision To Be Made

You think you know what you want, but how often do you find yourself saying, ‘I just don’t know what to do’? I hear this all the time, from friends, relations and readers of my books. People state the problem, but then make it absolutely clear they don’t know what solution they want. If the marriage has failed, should they leave or try to mend it? If business is bad should they start again, or work with what they have? When you feel too muddled, confused or influenced by others to think straight, call on this angel for clarity. You will find your thoughts become sharp, your emotions will be under control and you will make the best possible decision.

To Write Well

These days, everybody writes. Whether you’re writing an email, a poem, a novel or a business plan, you are more likely to get good results if you write well. When your writing matters, call on this angel to help. If you write often, you can work with this angel and ask to be helped with your writing for many years, or you can target the magick to a specific project if that matters more at the time.

To Get A Message Out To The World

This is the angel of publicity. When you want to get a message out to the world, especially a written message, call on this angel. The Powers of Poiei

To Obtain Any Desire

This power sounds a little too good to be true, but it is one that the members of The Gallery of Magick have all used with good results. Make sure you call on this angel when the desire seems vital to your very existence, rather than merely because the desire is pleasing to you. Ask for help when you have a desire that seems to suit your life, but currently seems impossible or out of reach. A second approach is to use this magick when you have a desire that has almost come to fruition several times, but has never quite made it through to reality. This angel will break through the barrier.

To Increase Fame and Fortune

This angel can help to build your personal charisma, and also develops your fame and your luck. To get the best results, ask for an increase in fame and fortune in a particular area of your life that matters greatly to you. Ideally, this should be your main profession, or a hobby you want to turn into a main profession. If you're working to get an Olympic Gold medal, then call on this angel to help with that, rather than to help sales of your solo guitar album. In short, use the power on things that really matter to you.

To Bring Fame Through Talent

When you are working with your natural talent, this angel can help to make you famous through the application of your talent. Call on the angel to make your talent become recognized by those who can help you. Ask the angel to bring you fame where it matters most, and to make your fans love you for the genuine talent you are offering. When promoting yourself in any way, you will need to market aspects of yourself that are not related to your talent, but this angel works to make your talent be seen most clearly. If you are a performer, the angel will ensure that your performances succeed and make you more famous.

If you are in a committed relationship and find yourself deeply attracted to somebody but want to remain faithful, this angel will help you turn the passion to something calmer.

Be Popular At Work

Call on this angel to get your co-workers, and even your boss, to like you. Be wary of being too popular, because sometimes the ‘nice guy’ seems too friendly to be hungry enough to rise to the top. If you are the boss, this is a fantastic angel to get your workers to like you.

The Powers of Yahehel

To Obtain Wisdom and Knowledge

When you need to obtain wisdom on a particular subject, call on this angel. You may discover new knowledge related to your question, or you may simply obtain greater clarity. This power is especially effective if you feel you are in a rut and you are looking for a new direction in life.

To Keep Secrets

This angel can help secrets to remain secret. If you are working on something that you want to remain hidden, call on this angel to help. You can keep things secret from everybody, or a specific person or a group of people. This power can be used to hide trade secrets, affairs, plans and anything else you want to remain hidden. A second way to use this power is to compel somebody else to keep your secret. If, for example, somebody you know sees you in a place that you shouldn't be, you can use this angel to silence them.

To Keep A Low Profile

There are times when you might want your actions to remain unnoticed. If you call on this angel, you can go about your life without people taking much notice of what you are doing. I can be contacted at both of the above sites if you have any questions about the magick in this book, but please note that I am often busy and may not be able to reply immediately. Sometimes there may be long delays.

Your patience is appreciated, and before asking a question, please make sure you read the FAQ first.

Unfortunately I do not have time to answer general questions about life or magick, but I am happy to answer questions about the magick in this book, and give advice where needed.

I'm afraid I will not answer questions about pronunciation because, as stated, there will always be debate, and the best possible phonetic pronunciations are included here. If you are concerned about a particular word, Google the pronunciation and make your own decision, but rest assured that what's written here will work.

If I don't reply it's probably because the answer is already in the book or the FAQ:

Place the angelic sigil you have chosen on your right.

I call on the inner planes to witness. I state my purpose thus.

I ask, how did I let go of fear?
I ask, how did I learn to manifest my dreams?

Magickal Seduction

#1 Best-seller in Amazon's Occult and Magic categories

'This was a great book to add to my magickal collection. In addition to the rituals provided, there are many tips and suggestions to ensure your success and safety.'

'Seduction Magick is a book which fills a hitherto largely untouched gap in magical practice - namely the intentional seduction of a partner by magick. This can be anyone who takes your fancy, a co-worker, your boss, a local beauty at the gym, whoever you like.'

Adventures In Sex Magick

Within days of release this shot into the top ten best-sellers for Occult and Magic on Amazon and continues to be one of my most popular books.

'You should really check this book out. For those who are new like me, you can get started right away. And for those who are experienced, you definitely won't be bored.'

'Great read. This book had a Lot to offer and it is written very well. I give it 5 stars. I think anyone that reads this book will enjoy it.'

'Using lust and sex in magick is certainly not new, but Damon brings it to us beginners in a very accessible way. His style is easygoing and relaxed, without losing sight of the material he is teaching. Definitely recommended if you are into practical goal-driven magick!'
